

JOHN GRAY LECTURE

Forest Health: National, Regional and Global Perspectives

Invasive species, climate change, plantation forestry, timber consumption and trade are changing the definition of forests. Can the Southeastern U.S. lead the way?

SHIROMA SATHYAPALA, PhD
Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations

Friday February 9th, 2018
Lecture @ 3PM | Panel @ 4PM
Venue: FDACS Division of Plant Industry
1911 SW 34th St., Gainesville, FL

LIMITED TO THE FIRST 100 ATTENDEES
COFFEE AND PASTRIES INCLUDED

Panel discussion:

Michael Bowers

USDA-NIFA

Tom Fox

Trevor Smith

Rayonier

FL Dept. of Agriculture

Jackie Burns

UF IFAS Research

PRESENTED BY THE SCHOOL OF FOREST RESOURCES & CONSERVATION
IN CONJUNCTION WITH